

Mentorship Program

Amna Asif, PhD

Engagement Lead, Assistant Professor

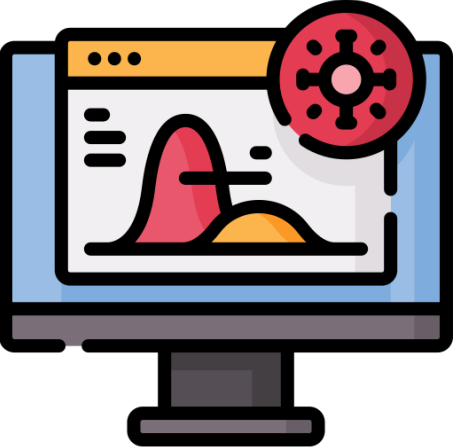

Computer Science & Software Engineering

Lancaster University, Leipzig

a.asif2@lancaster.ac.uk

Career Path

Data Science

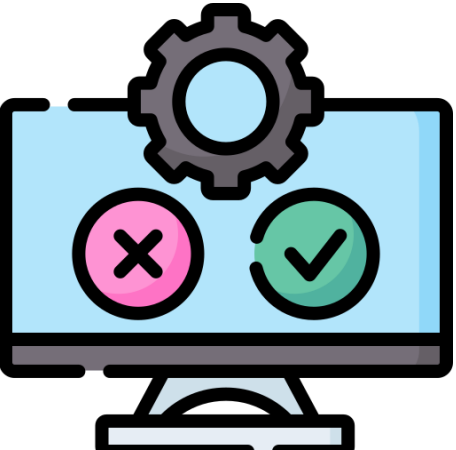

Cybersecurity

Software development

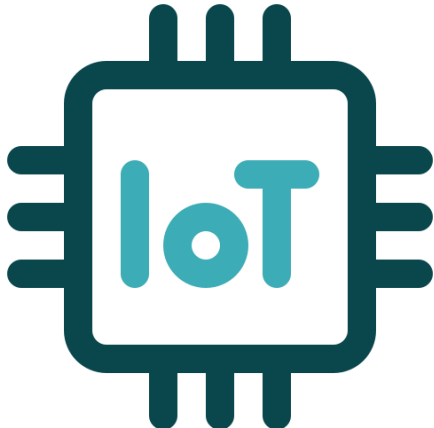

Software Testing

UI/UX designer

Internet of things

Dream Job

Mentorship

- Mentorship is a process where experienced professionals (mentors) guide and support students/ and young professional (mentees) in their academic and career development.
- Mentors provide guidance, share knowledge, and offer career insights.
- Improved academic performance, increased motivation, and better career prospects.

What is for a Mentor?

Skill Enhancement

Improved
Communication Skills

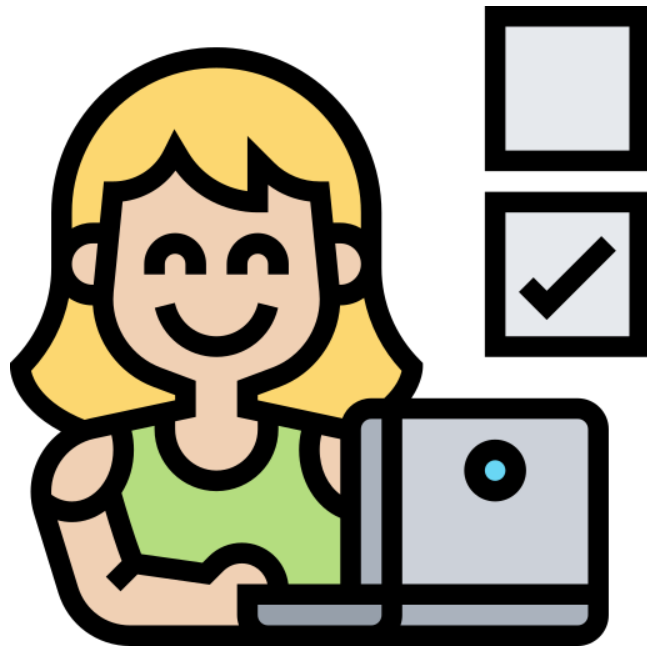

Long-Term
Relationships

Professional Recognition

Networking

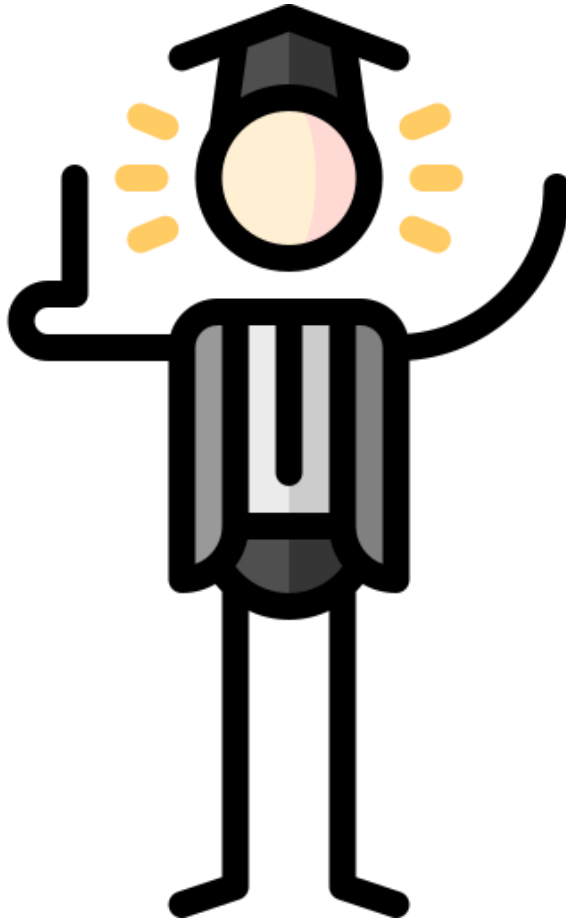

Leadership Development

Personal Growth

- Fostering industry-ready young academics.
- Enhancing the economy by advising students on market-driven careers.
- Providing students with up-to-date knowledge and practical skills through industry mentors.

What Mentee Can Get?

Guidance and Direction

Career Development

Skill Development

Networking Opportunities

Job Market Insights

Interview Preparation

Feedback and Evaluation

Career Advice

Moral Support

Inspiration and Motivation

Increased Confidence

Moral and Ethical Guidance

The Mentoring Process

---

Matching mentors and mentees:
Carefully pair mentors with students based on their goals and needs.

---

Setting goals and expectations:
Clearly define the mentorship objectives.

---

Regular meetings and guidance:
Regular check-ins to provide support and track progress.

Sign Up Today

[https://forms.
office.com/e/D uZziaERnw?o rigin=lprLink](https://forms.office.com/e/DuZziaERnw?origin=lprLink)